

Decision-Making Skills for Labour Leaders Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Trade Unions	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Effective decision-making skills for labour leaders are critical in today's rapidly evolving world of work, where industrial relations, collective bargaining, workforce governance, and labour rights advocacy demand clarity, speed, and strategic thinking. Labour leaders are expected to balance worker welfare, organizational productivity, legal compliance, and socio-economic realities while navigating complex negotiations and workplace challenges. Decision-Making Skills for Labour Leaders Training Course equips participants with advanced tools to make evidence-based, ethical, and strategic decisions that strengthen leadership credibility and union effectiveness.

In an era shaped by digital transformation, gig economy disruption, labour migration, and workplace automation, labour leaders must develop strong analytical, negotiation, and problem-solving capabilities. This course integrates practical case studies, simulation exercises, and real-world labour relations scenarios to build confidence in handling disputes, policy interpretation, and stakeholder engagement. The focus is on enhancing critical thinking, conflict resolution, and participatory leadership to improve outcomes for workers and institutions alike.
